Ed's Comments

By Ed Won, President Diablo PCA

Hello Diablo members!

El Nino lived up to its reputation and we got a pretty wet March. Unfortunately, we had to cancel the after-breakfast drive Bob Hilton had put together due to the foul weather. Carlos had sent out a cancellation notice for the tour, yet we had a huge turnout for breakfast. I have to admit a bit of panic set in, but went away when I asked who was here for the tour and nobody raised their hand. We were all here to just enjoy each other's company. I can't tell you how great that feels.

And speaking of fun, I just returned from our DE day at Thunderhill. We had an awesome time on the track with our Diablo friends, Golden Gate Region friends and Porsche community. A special Thank You to Stead Porsche for sponsoring the day! Thank you Adam Cipriano our Track chair, Jeff Urnes our Chief Driving Instructor, Mike Ciopyk our Track Registrar, Kay Maloy our glue for the team. And all the rest of the DE team that handled final grid inspections plus the volunteer instructors and Coaches.

I also want to especially thank Terry Eaton for coming to Thunderhill and volunteer running the grid. He didn't drive on the track. I know that would be hard for me to help and not drive at all.

Looking forward, I hope to see you all at our annual car show on the Sunday of Memorial day weekend. And what a spectacular weekend we have lined up this year! Our Car show again will be at the Danville livery. Leading the event is our very own VP Brian Adkins. Brian has fun, food and live music lined up. The charity this year is Collins Foundation based in Livermore. They restore and maintain our flying military history.

Our Diablo member, Naomi Sui is organizing a lunch on Memorial Day with volunteer speakers sharing family stories during war. I know we have a number of veterans who signed up give this event. What a great way to remember and pay tribute on this Memorial day. If you are interested in flying in a restored B25 or B17 the Collings Foundation will be taking their planes to the skies. Please visit the Diablo PCA website for a link to the event by the Collings Foundation and Naomi's luncheon.

Changing gears, it's Bocce Ball time again! Thank you Kay for arranging another outing! There's wine tasting before the Bocce Ball and a great dinner after. I don't drink so every time I hope the wine gets to their game, it hasn't happened yet. I will say it's so much fun seeing the competitive nature come out! Details and sign-ups are on our Diablo web page.

We are again heading to Mammoth on June 17th to the 19th. If you are attending please sign up on the Diablo web page for the caravan. Thus is a pay as you event, you will also need to make reservations at one of the hotels listed (reduced rates). There's a web link to the itinerary on the caravan signup. It's an awesome tour driving through Yosemite. We will meet Golden Gate Region and Sequoia Region at Tioga Pass and have a large group head in to Mammoth. Last year we had over 75 cars even without Sequoia Region. The event just keeps growing. This is a great event to meet folks from GGR, Sequoia, LA, Arizona, San Diego and Las Vegas.

The warm weather is here and can't wait to see you all at these great events!

Important Information

Diablo Region Porschephiles,

Have you enjoyed a great tour? How about a social event or the exhilaration of driving your Porsche on the track? All of these and other great member benefits are all possible because of members that had an idea or wanted to contribute to enhancing the Porsche ownership experience. These events often take considerable planning and commitments to site holders or other vendors that are needed to support the events. In many instances, the Region must commit resources weeks if not months in advance. For example, the number of meals must be committed to 7 days before the Annual Picnic but only 40 people may be signed up on that date, but more than 80 people typically attend. Knowing this, and not wanting to turn members away, the Region has to make a financial commitment for the additional meals.

The Region often opens registration on Eventbrite or MSR multiple weeks before the event to allow for an accurate attendance projection when we make site commitments. To assist our Region members who are hosting events during 2016, the Region will institute an enrollment premium 7 days before the event enrollment closes. The date and amount of the enrollment premium will be described in the event announcement. We hope that this will facilitate timely sign-ups and avoid surcharges by our vendors to accommodate late enrollees.

The Region has a great list of activities planned for 2016 and wants to make hosting an event as seamless as possible so more members can participate. So take a look at the schedule, find an activity and sign up early. We hope to see you at an upcoming tour, track day or social gathering soon.

As a courtesy to event planners or tour leaders, please sign up by the indicated deadline.

Deposits are made in advance based on a specified number of participants, and if more signups occur, there will be penalty fees

SEVENTY-ONE YEARS BEHIND THE WHEEL

AUTOBAHN ADVENTURE 9/30 to 10/10/2007

written by Jack Carpenter in 1995

Jan and I had been aware of Autobahn adventures for two or three years, and we both thought what a wonderful program, if we could afford it. Well, the 2007 Porsche Parade in San Diego gave us an offer we couldn't refuse. Mark and Tina Trewartha, the event hosts, held a drawing in their booth at Parade and Jan won $1500 off the price of her participation, and that made it impossible not to participate. Airfare was not included and we were able to get an Air Force flight from Travis AFB to Rammstein AFB, which was about 45 miles from our starting point, the Kempinski Hotel in Frankfurt. The Kempinski was one of eight marvelous hotels for both lodging and food on our trip. We even stayed at the Dorint Hotel, Nurburgring, where our first floor balcony room was a mere 100ft. from the Formula 1 Track, where six BMW drivers were competing with each other. The room had a guest book that contained many well-known drivers and car owners, while the halls, dining room, lobby and Hotel Museum contained everything from driver Mannequins to full size F 1 cars hanging from the ceiling. The only thing better than viewing these hotel features was our day spent as a passenger and driver on the Nurburgring.

All of us (14 couples) had been driving new black 911 Porsches that had less than 2000 miles. We had a 911S Coupe, while a couple of others had 4 wheel drives and a Cabriolet. All the Porsches were owned by Avis. Avis had bought them new from Porsche on the basis of renting them out for six months and then selling them back to Porsche. I have no idea how they were handled after that. Who knows, but it must be better than taking over a vehicle that had been leased for two or three years.

Maybe you're asking now if we drove the Porsches on the Ring? Here cooler heads prevailed and we were each assigned Rent A Race Cars that had their facility close to the Ring. I was assigned a Race Ready Volvo two door with some modification and a roll bar. Jan elected not to drive the Ring, but did six laps with our leader Mark in his Race Rental.

I forget which driver I paired up with, but he drove his three laps first while, I tried to remember which turns were coming up next. Jackie Stewart called The Ring, "Green Hell", not only for the green foliage, but the many banked concrete turns and it's long length. I have been lucky enough to drive all twenty of our Northern California courses along with some others outside the state like Road America; however, none of them tested your ability like the Ring.

When I got behind the wheel, I thought I was moving pretty good until I was passed by two Ferraris that made us feel like we were stopped. The strangest sensation though was being passed by two motorcycles that were ten feet above us on a steeply banked concrete turn. Even though the present F 1 course is not in the route we drove, it still has 14 miles of unforgiving turns.

As for some of the other great features of the event, each Porsche had a GPS that allowed us to set our hotel destination for that night in the morning. Autobahn destinations were not much of a problem, but secondary roads and getting through a strange, large city was a challenge in the States, let alone Germany and it's difficult long city words. At one point on the Autobahn, the GPS told us to take an off ramp and go into the hills. It didn't seem right at the time, but we decided to humor the lady with the lovely voice and drove 23 miles before back tracking to our point of departure. We were able to reach our destination and had no further problems with our GPS.

If you make it to the next Parade or any event where Mark and Tina have a booth, be sure to check it out. You won't find a nicer couple or a better way to part with some of your hard earned Porsche money.

Be careful out there,

Jack

Are You Getting Your Diablo EBLASTS????

On a regular basis Diablo Region sends out Eblasts to our membership, both regular and their affiliated members. The blasts can be to announce or remind members of an upcoming tour, event, DE Track Day, dinner, or anything else that warrants notifying our membership.

We have heard from some members they have not been receiving the Eblasts. The emails are sent out using the email addresses that were provided to PCA National when the primary member joined PCA. If an affiliated member status was added when the member joined, their email address should also be added. We know that some households have one person who may be more active online, and that person may not have their email address in the system.

So, to ensure your email addresses are current and correct on PCA National's records, log onto www.pca.org. Click on Member Log-in. On the next screen, type in Username or your email address and password. Click the Log in button. Click on the Edit tab on the next screen. You can verify all your information here. One word to describe the day—AWESOME!! 75 drivers arrived at the gate, feeling chilled in the crisp morning air, but eager to get on the track. Half of them had partied late into the night at our track eve dinner. The noise level is unbelievable, but so much fun!

The day welcomed an assortment of colors and the gamut of models of Porsches. We were fortunate to have two individuals taking photos all day, Tim Watson from Diablo and Greg Phillips, Newsletter Editor from San Diego. Check out the photos from the dinner and all throughout the day at the track. Maybe you and your car should think about joining us at the next DE Day in September????

Stay tune, there may be a driving tour from Buttercup Grill and Bar in Walnut Creek through the country roads to Beeb's in Livermore. All we need is someone to volunteer as tour leader!

Collings Foundation's Wings of Freedom Flight Experience

Take a tour through living history - walk through a Boeing B-17 Flying Fortress and Consolidator B-24 Liberator and/or take a flight in the last flying B-24 Liberator.

The B-17 Flying Fortress is a high flying, long-range bomber used primarily by the US Army Air Force for daylight strategic bombing against German industrial and military targets. The bomber was used to achieve air superiority over Western Europe in preparation for the Invasion of France by allied forces. The B-17 played a lesser role in the War in the Pacific conducting raids against Japanese shipping and airfields.

The Collings Foundation's B-24 Liberator is the last flying B-24 that saw combat. An American heavy bomber used extensively in World War II saw action in the Western European Theater, Battle of the Atlantic, and bombing campaigns in the Pacific. The B-24 holds the distinction of being the most produced heavy bomber in history with almost 19,000 made, but only 1 remains flying today!

For the more adventurous, take a ride in the B-24. Walk through the bomb bay, sit in the tail gun turret, and for the real flexible, squeeze into the nose gun turret, or just stick your head out the waist gun windows while in flight. Take a ride and feel the experience!

Date: Memorial Day, May 30th

Tours: Option 1) Self-guided walking tour through B-17 and B-24

Option 2) Self-guided walking tour plus 30 minute flight in B-24

Time: Self-guided walking tours 3-4:30 pm

B-24 Flight starts at 5pm, weather permitting

Place: Livermore Airport (9 minute walk from Beeb's Sports Bar and Grill)

Price: Option 1) Walking Tour $12/person, reserve a space at diablo-pca.org

Option 2) Walking Tour plus B-24 flight $450/person, reserve a space at diablo-pca.org

The activity is pay as you go, however please register on Eventbrite because we need a head count to reserve tour space. The first afternoon flight in the B-24 starts after the walking tour is done for the day, which is approximately 5 pm. Maximum number of passengers in a B-24 is 10 so we would like to reserve all 10 spots for PCA. If we have more than 10 people, we will reserve space in either the B-17's 5 pm flight or the B-24, 5:30 flight. If we do not fill an entire flight, we will have to wait until those spots are filled by other people.

Chen Chang

Purchase Date: February, 2016

Year and Type of Porsche: 2015 911 Turbo S

Outside Color: White

Interior Color: Black

Transmission Type: PDK

Comments: I have two purchases, the Turbo and a 2014 Cayenne with white exterior and beige Interior. Love scuba diving worldwide and driving my Porsche along Hwy 1.

Erik Dryburgh

Purchase Date: December, 2015

Year and Type of Porsche: 2016 Boxster

Outside Color: Carrera White

Interior Color: Beige and Black full leather

Transmission Type: Manual, of course

Comments: My previous car was a 'tastefully upgraded' 1999 Miata – lots of fun to drive, but the Boxster is far more refined in every respect. Not only does it drive great, but I LOVE the sound! I use it as my daily driver, and plan on a few track days once I have enough miles on the car. I had not planned on buying a new car for a few years, but I really wanted the flat-six naturally aspirated motor – so I had to get a 2016.

Charles Floyd

We bought our 911 in March of 2012. It's a 1983 911SC, in chiffon white with brown interior. It's got the 915 tranny. My wife's father had several Porsche's as she was growing up. I've never had a real sports car, but when I turned 50 told her I was going to get something that I could repair and learn about as a lifelong project. She suggested we get a 911 and that she would pony up half for the car. Well, I couldn't resist the offer. It sure beats the corvette I was looking at! I'm planning to rebuild the motor myself in the next couple of years, but the car runs great right now. It's a blast to drive.

Mark Imberson

Purchase Date: 2011

Year and Type of Porsche: 2006 Boxster (standard)

Outside Color: Silver with Black top

Interior Color: Gray

Transmission Type: Tiptronic

Comments: Why did I buy the Porsche? I had a 2L 914 before kids and loved the mid engine feel. I rebuilt it and had almost 200,000 miles on it when it was time to say goodbye to it. Yes, I really meant I loved that 914. Anyway, 2011 came along and my neighbor was selling the Boxster... Spouse loves the convertible & it's ours.... Well, about the same time, my son needed a car (yes he's an adult now) and the car went to him. Time passed and he now has little ones & I got the Porsche back!!! Life is good & I am glad to have another Porsche to drive. Also I am looking forward to being in the Porsche club.

Jeff Miller

Purchase Date: September, 2012

Year and Type of Porsche: 2012 911 4GTS Coupe

Outside Color: Black

Interior Color: Black

Transmission Type: PDK

Dan Ng

Purchase Date: January, 2016

Year and Type of Porsche: 2016 911 Carrera Cabriolet

Outside Color: Agate Grey with black top

Interior Color: Black

Transmission Type: 7 Speed PDK

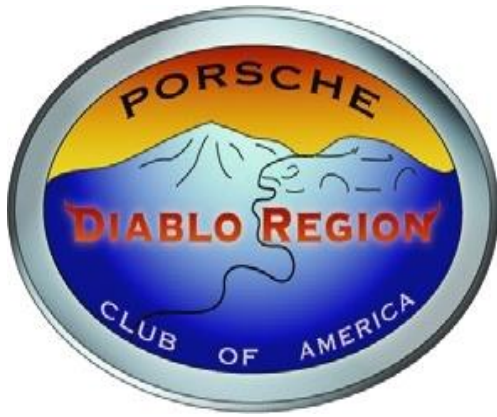

Comments: Loved the look of a 911 since I was a boy. Glad that I am finally able to own one.
