PCA National Upcoming Events:

For those planning on attending Parade 2022 at the Kalahari Resort in the Poconos, registration is now open for phase II events which includes banquets, competitive events such as concours, autocross, TSD rally, and the popular tours. Phase I registration has closed and only those who have registered for Phase I can register for Phase II. Attendance was limited based on the availability of hotel rooms, according to Parade chair, Ron Gordon. For more information visit: <https://www.porscheparade.org/>

Fall Treffen will be held at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs from April 17th to May 1st. The event is sold out and many members from Zone 7 who have successfully registered will be making the 2,400-mile round trip journey. For more information go to: <https://treffen.pca.org/index.cfm?event=main.showcontent&page=21>

Werks Reunion will be returning to the Monterey Peninsula on August 19th with registration opening May 25th. This is a highly anticipated event happening during Monterey Car Week along with the event of the week, the Pebble Beach Concours D 'elegance. The Monterey Historic races will also be held that week with PCA planning a hospitality tent on August 20-21st in conjunction with the race.

Porscheplatz at the IMSA Hyundai Sports Car Challenge will be held on April 30th and May 1st. The event will be held at Laguna Seca Raceway and the hospitality tent is being sponsored by Porsche Cars North America. PCNA will feature guest speakers, pit tours of the IMSA race team paddocks, and a Parade lap. Tickets are required for parking in the Porsche Corral but any PCA member with proof of membership or a Porsche owner with key fob may enter the hospitality tent.

Parade 2023 will be held at the La Quinta Resort in Palm Springs from June 18-24th. The hotel is a five -star rated property that has a famous history of being the hangout for movie stars and the Hollywood elite during the 1940's.

Zone Autocross and Concours Series Update;

The first two events of the Zone Autocross series were held on March 12th and 13th at Crows Landing near Patterson, California. The March 12th event was sponsored by Golden Gate Region and had over 60 drivers participating while the March 13th had around 50 drivers and was hosted by Loma Prieta Region. The next events in the Zone Series will be held on May 14th and 15th and Thunderhill Raceway Park with Sacramento Valley Region hosting the event on May 14th and Redwood Region hosting the event on May 15th. Registration is currently open.

Zone 7 Concours Series Update:

The Zone concours team completed its Phase I school via Zoom on April 10th that was attended by more than 60 students and was led by Zone Concours chairs, Roy Schauben and Simone Kopitzki. It was very well organized, and the students received an update on some clarifications of the current Zone Concours rules as well as tips on how to judge and prepare cars for competition. Phase II training will be held on May 1st at Porsche Stevens Creek as well as at Hi Tech Automotive in San Rafael followed by another Phase II training session sponsored by the Sacramento Valley Region on May 22nd in Shingle Springs just east of Sacramento.

The first concours of the season will be held in Sacramento at Porsche of Rocklin on June 5th with registration now open on Motorsportreg.com at the following link: <https://www.motorsportreg.com/events/concours-porsche-of-rocklin-pca-sacramento-valley-events-553050>

PCA West Coast Club Race Series:

The first two club races of the West Coast Club Race series were held at Thunderhill Raceway Park in Willows, Ca. on April 3-4th, and was attended by 34 drivers. This was a very good turnout especially considering it was the first two events of the series and there were several other club race events on the same weekend. The club racing series is divided into several different classes including 911Cup, GTA, GT2, GT3, and Spec Boxster with Spec Boxster being the most popular among club racers. The weekend featured several qualifying sessions and 3 sprint races. The results of the first sprint race on April 4th are below:

NAPA TOUR June 25

Date and Time:

Saturday, June 25th

Meet at 9:15 AM, Fairfield Costco 5101 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, CA. 94534. We will meet in the parking adjacent to the Costco Gas pumps.

Driver's Meeting: 9:30

Depart at 10:00 AM

Description:

Join us for a tour through Solano county's Wooden Valley into Napa County and up to Lake Berryessa, through Pope Valley and Angwin and into the Napa Valley where we will lunch at Gott's Roadside.

Starting at the Costco in Fairfield we will travel through Wodden Valley and over the backroads to Lake Berryessa's Dufer Point Visitor Center. At Dufer point we'll have a restroom break and then enjoy a ranger led discussion of Lake Beryessa and the surrounding area's history.

We will continue along Lake Berryessa's western edge crossing the Knoxville Pope Canyon Bridge before heading west through beautiful Pope Valley. Departing Pope Valley we will climb over Howell Mountain. You'll notice the trees change from scrub Oaks at the lower elevation to a forest of cool green filled with Redwood trees.

At the top of Howell Mountain we will pass through the city of Angwin, before heading down into the Napa Valley. Upon entering Napa Valley we will head north along the Silverado Trail to Calistoga's Lincoln Ave. We will pass down the main drag of Calistoga before turning south on Highway 29.

We will stop at the "Welcome to The Napa Valley" sign between Calistoga and St. Helena for group and individual pictures before continuing south on highway 29 to our destination Gott's Roadside. Gott's is a popular roadside eatery with a diverse menu that includes vegetarian options. They have something for everyone. Lunch at Gott's is out of pocket. Parking is available in the Gott's lot as well as a lot on the corner of 29 and Charter Oak Ave. which is adjacent to Gott's.

The tour will end at Gott's so that if you desire you can make plans to visit one of the many wineries for an afternoon tasting. Be sure to make reservations, since COVID most wineries will not accept walk-ins. You can also opt to spend the night in the Napa Valley. One good and budget friendly choice is the Calistoga Inn, book early because their rooms go fast. There are many other hotel choices, as well as Airbnb and VRBO options.

Schedule:

Saturday, June 25th

9:15 am Gather

9:30 am Driver Tour Directions and Safety Briefing

10:00 am Depart

10:50 am Arrive Dufer Point visitor's center for restrooms and ranger presentation

11:30 am Depart Dufer Point

12:30 pm Arrive "Welcome to Napa Valley" sign

01:00 pm Depart "Welcome to Napa Valley" sign

01:15 pm Arrive Gott's Roadside

03:00 pm Tour ends

Pre-paid:

- This tour is FREE for PCA members.

Out of Pocket:

- As required at Gott's Roadside.

Please "purchase" one REQUIRED - Scenic Drive ticket (so we can collect your vehicle information)
